

LUSO-CANADIANS AND THEIR DESCENDANTS IN CANADA AND IN PORTUGAL: QUESTIONS OF CIVIC PARTICIPATION AND DIVERSITY MANAGEMENT

Location:

UNIVERSIDADE ABERTA,
Campus do Tagus Park,
Edifício Inovação I – 2º andar -Sala Polivalente

JUNE 27TH, 2011

14:30 – 18:30h

ENTRANCE: OPEN

PROGRAM:

14:30 Opening address: Professor Carlos Reis, Rector of Universidade Aberta
The Honourable Anne-Marie Bourcier, Canadian Ambassador to Portugal

Session 1: Moderator – João Sardinha

Ana Paula Beja Horta (CEMRI – Univ. Aberta)	Multiculturalism and the Politics of Belonging among Portuguese Canadians - Shifting Contexts and Meanings
Fernando Nunes (Mount St. Vincent Univ.)	Evaluating Multiculturalism: Portuguese-Canadian Descendants within the Canadian Mosaic
Gilberto Fernandes & Raphael Costa (York Univ.)	A Past for the Future: Archiving the Portuguese Canadian Experience - The Portuguese Canadian History Project
Discussion

16:15 Coffee break

16:30 Session 2: Moderator – Fernando Nunes

Sónia Ferreira, Marta Vilar Rosales & Filomena Silvano (CIA – FCSH/UNL)	Portuguese Media Production in Canada: Some Preliminary Ethnographic Notes
Robert Kenedy (York Univ.)	Understanding Portuguese-Canadian Civic Identity in a Cosmopolitan Context
Ana Gherghel (Univ. dos Açores) & Josiane Le Gall (Univ. du Québec a Montréal)	Transnational Practices and Intergenerational Transmittance Among Azorean Descendants in Quebec (Canada)
João Sardinha (CEMRI – Univ. Aberta)	When the Idyllic Becomes a Myth: Portuguese-Canadian Descendants Narrate Pre- and Post-Return to Portugal
Discussion

18:30 Closing

Organisation and support:

International Council for Canadian Studies
Conseil International d'Études Canadiennes

