

Portuguese emigration to Brazil tends to stabilise in 2023

2024-07-30

In 2023, 547 Portuguese entered Brazil, according to data from the Brazilian Ministry of Justice and Public Security. This ministry accounted for a total of 29,627 foreigners entering Brazil, with the Portuguese accounting for 1.8% of this total. +

After 2020 saw a decrease in the number of Portuguese entering Brazil and 2021 and 2022 saw increases, 2023 saw a small decline (-2.7%). This value seems to herald a trend towards stabilisation in the number of Portuguese entering Brazilian territory. The number of Portuguese citizens entering Brazil is still far from the figure recorded in 2013: 2,904, the highest in the period under review. The recessive trend in recent years has translated into a relative loss of importance of Portuguese immigration: while in 2013 the Portuguese accounted for 4.7% of the inflows to Brazil, in 2023 they represented only 1.8%.
